

BIOFUTURE 2011:

YOUNG EUROPEAN
BIOMATERIAL SCIENTISTS
DESIGNING A VIEW
FOR THE FUTURE

Het Pand, Ghent
Belgium

November 16-18th
2011

The congress aims to bring together young European biomaterial scientists to discuss the future of biomaterial science. This innovative workshop is unique due to the organization by young scientists. A substantial amount of time will be reserved for discussing the industry academia link. Presentations will include orals and posters.

We hope to welcome you in Ghent in November!

Organizing Committee:

Peter Dubruel (BE)
Sandra Van Vlierberghe (BE)
Catherine Verfaillie (BE)
Fabrizio Barberis (IT)
Nicholas Dunne (UK)
Frank Feyerabend (G)
Izabela Stancu (RO)
Frank Witte (G)

Keynote talks by Prof. C. Kirkpatrick, Prof. L. Di Silvio Prof. M. Santin and Prof. P. Granja confirmed.

Abstracts:

Abstracts should be sent by e-mail by September 1st 2011 to pbmugent@gmail.com

The age of presenters is limited to 40 following the ESB Jean Lera Award guidelines

Abstract template available on: <http://www.pbm.ugent.be/>

Registration:

PhD students: 175 €
group leaders/post-docs: 300 €
Gala dinner: 65 €
Registration fee includes conference attendance, book of abstracts and lunches
Registration form available on <http://www.pbm.UGent.be>

Venue:

Het Pand, Onderbergen 1
B-9000 Ghent, Belgium

GOLDEN SPONSORS

SILVER SPONSORS

young.scientistsforum

BRONZE SPONSORS

